

The Oddball, The Unusual, The Fiddly, The Farty

Welcome to our first 2011 newsletter and what a year it's been so far. Our thoughts are with our customers and contacts in Christchurch. We wish you well for the future and hope it all settles down soon.

We have finally reorganized our Packaging Page on our website and invite you to check it out. Ultimately it is our aim to have lots of photos of work we have done to inspire you but there are pictures enough to get you started, on the page. Either click thru' from here or enter the link in your browser

We have also listed some over-runs that we have on hand and will be gradually adding to that as we sort them out and photograph. There are a couple of boxes on there that we are selling on behalf of customers for a 10% commission. If you have any packaging that you no longer want and it doesn't seem quite right to list it on your site, we are more than happy to list these on your behalf. We just require photos, details of the box, the total number you have on hand and the price you would like to recover.

Our next project will be our Corporate Events page. This will show invitations, menu's, name badges, match books, coasters, table names to name a few. These of course can all tie up with serviettes and ribbons that you already know about. If you don't – they're up on the website already.

In the meantime you could visit our Retail Website Hayfords Wedding Stationery and Accessories and this will show you, in part, just some of the things we can do. We are able to do so much more than just straight digital printing. Check out blind embossing or debossed letterpress printing. Thermography and foil printing. These processes can really make that point of difference when trying to stand out from your competitors.
